ANNUAL MEETING

September 24-26, 2008
OMNI HOTEL at CNN CENTER AND
GEORGIA WORLD CONGRESS CENTER
Atlanta, Georgia USA

Held in conjunction with SuperCorrExpo®2008, September 22-26 and the 2008 TAPPI Corrugated Packaging Conference, September 22-24

Keynote and Industry Speakers

FUEL THE PASSION FOR SUCCESS AT THE AICC 2008 ANNUAL MEETING

At the meeting, there will be three full days of workshops, eye-openers, general sessions, networking events and the SuperCorrExpo® 2008 Corrugated Machinery Show. We will focus on creating a sustainable business, and how that will benefit your company and your customers. We'll look at trends in the corrugated business, hearing from key industry players and major corrugated users. We will also look at our political and economic landscape, with an emphasis on rebuilding our North American manufacturing base and how the 2008 presidential election will address these issues.

All spouse and guest attendees are welcome and encouraged to attend all general sessions.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25th

Ben Stein, Economist, Author, Actor, Syndicated Columnist

Mr. Stein will discuss the current economic landscape and review the factors and trends that affect, and are driving, U.S. Manufacturing and global competition. He has been a columnist and editorial writer for the Wall Street Journal, a syndicated columnist for the Los Angeles Herald Examiner, King Features Syndicate, and he also writes frequently for the Washington Post, the Wall Street Journal, and many other magazines.

Lou Sardella, Founder and Chairman of Sun Automation Group

With over 40 years and 17 patents in the corrugated industry, Mr. Sardella is the driving force behind Sun Automation. He will address how entrepreneurial spirit and independent passion have played a key role in Sun Automation's success as an independent equipment supplier and discuss steps Independents, regardless of the industry they serve, must take to ensure growth and continuity in their businesses and future succession.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26th

Ben Pratt, Senior Vice President, Market Based Management at Georgia Pacific/Koch Industries

Mr. Pratt will discuss Koch Industries business philosophy and how by utilizing these values and practices you can create a successful and more sustainable business. Mr. Pratt progressed through various leadership positions within the Koch Supply and Trading division of Koch Industries with the consistent theme of applying systems and technologies to promote global trading. Prior to Koch he managed global computing for Wall Street firm Salomon, Inc.

John Kasich, Former Congressman, Television Personality, and Author

Mr. Kasich addresses the 2008 presidential election and how the current political landscape will affect rebuilding the North American manufacturing base. Mr. Kasich currently hosts The Heartland with John Kasich on FOX and is a managing director of Lehman Brothers. A member of Congress for 18 years, he served as chairman of the House Budget Committee and architect of the plan that balanced the federal budget.

Scott Vitters, Director of Sustainable Packaging, The Coca-Cola Company

As Director of Sustainable packaging, Mr. Vitters is responsible for overseeing the Company's Global Sustainable Packaging Platform and ensuring the execution of Coca-Cola's commitment to environmental excellence in North America. Mr. Vitters will address the Company's sustainability efforts in packaging and discuss Coca-Cola's current and future criteria for selecting packaging and raw material suppliers.
