Public Transportation

The Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) is Atlanta's state-of-the-art public transportation system. MARTA's mission is to provide visitors and residents of Atlanta with the highest level of safe, clean, reliable and affordable transportation. MARTA is made up of a bus and rail system that connects all parts of Atlanta. A single $1.75 fare covers one-way bus or train trips, including transfers.

If you are coming from Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, MARTA has a rail station located at the north end of the airport, near baggage claim. This service offers the quickest and least expensive way to get to and from downtown Atlanta's hotels and the Georgia World Congress Center directly.

The GWCC is MARTA accessible at two stations. For access to events in Building C, use the W-1 station above, or use the Vine City Station (W-2). Both stations are footsteps away from the entrances to the Georgia World Congress Center. For more information on MARTA, visit www.itsmarta.com.

The Atlanta Airport station is located at baggage claim. Visit <http://www.gwcc.com/maps/public.html> for more information on public transportation and maps.

Handicapped Accessibility

The GWCC has taken initiatives to ensure barrier-free use by all visitors. They provide complimentary wheelchairs for use inside the facility. Any guest who needs a wheelchair may acquire one at the Information Center (located in the Main Entrance concourse), on a first-come, first-served basis.
